

OfficePal C40

Thanks to its extensive adjustment options for ergonomic seating, the OfficePal C40 is the ultimate executive chair for the office or working from home. Whether it's the chair height, the seat depth or the height of the backrest, a full range of adjustments are available for the right sitting position. The combination of a mesh backrest and an upholstered seat base ensures comfort even after long periods of use.

Features

WORK COMFORTABLY FOR HOURS

With the combination of a sturdy mesh backrest and a padded seat base, the OfficePal C40 will allow you to work comfortably and relaxed for hours at a time.

EXTENSIVE CHAIR ADJUSTMENTS

For the best possible ergonomics, the OfficePal C40 has adjustments for the chair height, the tilt angle and the seat depth. In addition, the backrest can be positioned to one of five different heights.

GOOD SUPPORT FOR HEAD AND LUMBAR

To optimally support a healthy sitting posture, there is also an integrated lumbar support as well as a height- and angle-adjustable headrest.

4D ARMRESTS

The armrests of the OfficePal C40 can be fully adjusted in four directions to provide the ideal posture for the arms and upper body.

TILT MECHANISM

The OfficePal C40 also has a tilt mechanism on board for an optimal reclining position and to provide a comfortable rocking motion to help relieve stress at work.

PERFECT HOLD

With a combination of a stable nylon five-star base, a class-4 gas lift piston and five large 60 mm wheels, the OfficePal C40 is optimally designed for a high load of up to 150 kg.
