

OfficePal C50M

The OfficePal C50M not only has a modern design with a mesh seat base and backrest but also provides a complete range of ergonomic adjustments for a healthy sitting position – whether in the company office or when working from home. All aspects of the chair can be adapted to the user, including the backrest, the seat depth, and the innovative 5D armrests. Also, an adjustable headrest and lumbar support help ensure an all-round healthy posture throughout a long working day.

Features

- FOR ESPECIALLY COMFORTABLE SITTING
 Both the seat base and the backrest of the OfficePal C50M are covered entirely with a mesh fabric for optimal breathability and comfortable sitting.
- IINNOVATIVE 5D ARMRESTS
 The armrests of the OfficePal C50M can be adjusted in five directions, allowing freedom of movement for the user thanks to a complete range of adjustments to suit personal sitting needs at the workplace.
- ADJUSTABLE ELEMENTS
 For optimal ergonomics, the backrest of the OfficePal C50M as well as the seat depth and the seat height can all be adjusted to individual requirements.
- OPTIMAL SUPPORT
 To achieve a healthy sitting posture, the integrated lumbar support and headrest of the OfficePal C50M can be flexibly adjusted to support the back and neck.
- RELAXING TILT FUNCTION
 The OfficePal C50M has a tilt function that provides an additional possibility for the user to move while sitting, thus promoting stress reduction, especially when sitting for long periods.
- STABLE BASE WITH EASY ASSEMBLY
 The metal five-star base of the OfficePal C50M is easy to assemble and, together with large 60 mm wheels, ensures a secure stand and flexible mobility on various types of floor.
